

OVERDRAFT COVERAGE OPTIONS: OVERDRAFT PROTECTION AND PRIVILEGE PAY

Alcoa Tenn Federal Credit Union understands that unexpected overdrafts occur from time to time – Overdraft Coverage can help.

Overdraft Coverage Options

The choice is yours. Consider these ways to cover overdrafts:

Service	Cost
Overdraft Protection —Link to another ATFCU Deposit Account	No fee per transfer; Subject to transfer limitations*
Overdraft Protection-- Line of Credit	Subject to interest, credit approval
Privilege Pay Standard or Extended Coverage	$32 Privilege Pay Fee per item presented

*See ATFCU’s Electronic Fund Transfers Agreement and Disclosure for transfer limitations

 Per item presented means each time an item is presented, including re-presentation.

Overdraft Protection applies to all transactions and may help prevent overdrafts by automatically transferring funds to your checking account from another account, or line of credit you may have at Alcoa Tenn Federal Credit Union for a fee or finance charge. Please note that overdraft lines of credit are subject to finance charge and credit approval.

Privilege Pay allows you to overdraw your account up to the disclosed limit for a fee to pay a transaction. Even if you have Overdraft Protection, Privilege Pay is still available as secondary coverage if the other protection source is exhausted. Please review What Else You Should Know for other important information.

If you choose Extended Coverage on your consumer account, ATM transactions and everyday debit card transactions will be included with the transactions listed under Standard Coverage. If you already have Privilege Pay Extended Coverage, it is not necessary to request it again. Business accounts automatically have Extended Coverage.

You can discontinue Privilege Pay in its entirety by contacting us at (865)-977-3118.

WHAT ELSE YOU SHOULD KNOW

- A link to another account or line of credit may be less expensive than an overdraft. A single larger overdraft will result in one fee, instead of multiple smaller overdrafts. Use our mobile, internet, and telephone banking services to track your balance. For financial education resources, please visit www.mymoney.gov.
- The $32 Privilege Pay Fee that is charged if you overdraw your account is the same fee that is charged if an item is returned as unpaid. If multiple items overdraw your account on the same day, each item will be assessed an appropriate Privilege Pay Fee or a Return Item Fee of $32. All fees and charges will be included as part of the Privilege Pay limit amount. Your account may become overdrawn more than the Privilege Pay limit amount because of a fee.
- Recipients of federal or state benefits payments who do not wish us to deduct the amount overdrawn and the Privilege Pay Fee from funds that you deposit or that are deposited into your account may call us at (865)-977-3118 to discontinue Privilege Pay.
- If an item is returned because the Available Balance (as defined below) in your account is not sufficient to cover the item and the item is presented for payment again, Alcoa Tenn Federal Credit Union (“We”) will charge a Return Item Fee each time it returns the item because it exceeds the Available Balance in your account. Because we may charge a Return Item Fee each time an item is presented, we may charge you more than one fee for any given item as a result of a returned item and re-presentation of the item. When we charge a Return Item Fee, the charge reduces the Available Balance in your account and may put your account into (or further into) overdraft. If, on re-presentation of the item, the Available Balance in your account is sufficient to cover the item we may pay the item, and, if payment causes an overdraft, charge a Privilege Pay Fee. We may use the terms “item” and “transaction” interchangeably.
- There is a limit of 7 Privilege Pay Fees ($224) per day we will charge.
- We generally post items in the following order: 1) credits 2) ATM and debit card transactions (in the order received); 3) ACH debits (in the order received); 4) checks (check number order); however, exceptions will occur. ATM and debit card transactions are authorized in real time and posted as they are received; therefore, these items may post before credits. However, because of the many ways we allow you to access your account, the posting order of individual items may differ from these general policies. Holds on funds (described herein) and the order in which transactions are posted may impact the total amount of Privilege Pay Fees or Return Item Fees assessed.
- Privilege Pay is not a line of credit; it is a discretionary overdraft service that can be withdrawn at any time without prior notice.
- Depositor and each Authorized Signatory will continue to be liable, jointly and severally, for all overdraft and fee amounts, as described in the Membership and Account Agreement and Disclosure. The total (negative) balance, including all fees and charges, is due and payable upon demand.
- We may be obligated to pay some debit card transactions that are not authorized through the payment system but which we are required to pay due to the payment system rules, and as a result you may incur fees if such transactions overdraw your account. However, we will not authorize debit card or ATM transactions unless your account’s Available Balance (including Overdraft Coverage Options) is sufficient to cover the transactions and any fee(s).
- Giving us your consent to pay everyday debit card and ATM overdrafts on your consumer account (Extended Coverage) may result in you incurring Privilege Pay Fees for transactions that we would otherwise be required to pay without assessing a Privilege Pay Fee. However, this would allow us to authorize transactions up to the amount of your Privilege Pay limit. If you consent to Extended Coverage on your consumer account, it will remain on your account until it is otherwise withdrawn.

Understanding your Available Balance: Your account has two kinds of balances: the Ledger Balance and the Available Balance.

- We authorize and pay transactions using the Available Balance.
- Your Ledger Balance reflects the full amount of all deposits to your account as well as payment transactions that have been posted to your account. It does not reflect checks you have written and are still outstanding or transactions that have been authorized but are still pending.
- Your Available Balance is the amount available to you to use for purchases, withdrawals, or to cover transactions. The Available Balance is your Ledger Balance, less any holds due to pending debit card transactions and holds on deposited funds.
- The balance used for authorizing checks, ACH items, and recurring debit card transactions is your Available Balance plus the amount of the Privilege Pay limit and any available Overdraft Protection.
- The balance used for authorizing ATM and everyday debit card transactions on accounts with Standard Coverage is your Available Balance plus any available Overdraft Protection but does NOT include the Privilege Pay limit.
- The balance used for authorizing ATM and everyday debit card transactions on accounts with Extended Coverage is your Available Balance plus any available Overdraft Protection and includes the Privilege Pay limit.
- Because your Available Balance reflects pending transactions and debit holds, your balance may appear to cover a transaction but later upon settlement it may not be sufficient to cover such transaction. In such cases, the transaction may further overdraw your account and be subject to additional overdraft fees. You should assume that any item which would overdraw your account based on your Available Balance may create an overdraft.

Note that we may place a hold on deposited funds in accordance with our Membership and Account Agreement and Disclosure, which will reduce the amount in your Available Balance.

- Please be aware that the Privilege Pay amount is not included in your Available Balance provided through online banking, mobile banking or Alcoa Tenn Federal Credit Union's ATMs.
- We will place a hold on your account for any authorized debit card transaction until the transaction settles (usually within two business days) or as permitted by payment system rules. In some cases, the hold may exceed the amount of the transaction. When the hold ends, the funds will be added to the Available Balance in your account. If your account is overdrawn after the held funds are added to the Available Balance and the transaction is posted to the Available Balance, a Privilege Pay Fee may be assessed.
- Except as described herein, we will not pay items if the Available Balance in your account (including the Privilege Pay limit, if applicable) is not sufficient to cover the item(s) and the amount of any fee(s).

Understanding Overdraft Privilege Limits

- New consumer and business checking accounts will receive a $100 Introductory Privilege Pay limit at account opening that will be increased up to $600 after 30 days in good standing for Personal and Business checking accounts or up to $800 after 30 days in good standing for Personal Money Market and Business Money Market accounts.
- Privilege Pay may be reduced or suspended if you default on any loan or other obligation to us, your account becomes subject to any legal or administrative order or levy, or if you fail to maintain your account in good standing by not bringing your account to a positive balance within thirty-five (35) days for a minimum of one business day. You must bring your account balance positive for at least one business day to have the full Privilege Pay limit reinstated.
